

Kane County Mutual Insurance Company Privacy Policy

Protecting your privacy is very important to our company and employees. We are committed to safeguarding your personal information. The following describes the privacy policy of Kane County Mutual Insurance Company and applies to all individuals who apply for a property insurance policy from our company.

Information That We Collect

We may collect nonpublic personal information about you that includes the following:

- Information we receive from you on applications, which may include your name, address, date of birth and social security number.
- Information from third parties such as credit bureaus and loss reporting agencies that retain the history of claims on particular property locations or persons.

Information That We Disclose

We are permitted to share information as permitted by law in certain circumstances. For example, we may share nonpublic information to third parties that assist us in adjusting claims on your property or in response to subpoenas by government agencies, courts, parties to lawsuits or regulators. In these cases we only share the information that we are required or authorized to share.

Our Security and Confidentiality Procedures

Access to your customer information is restricted to only those employees who need it to perform their jobs. All employees have limited access to your personal information and have been instructed to protect the confidentiality of that information. Employees who violate these procedures are subject to disciplinary action. In addition we maintain physical and electronic safeguards to protect your nonpublic information.

This privacy policy applies to all current and former Kane County Mutual Insurance Company Policyholders.
